Being on holiday from the UK the family we were so pleased to stumble upon this fab little restaurant on Hastings street during our stay in Noosa. The food is exceptional and definitely on a par with the best curry places from home. Food heaven ! read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Kaali:

Having read reviews it seemed worth of a try. We found the menu fairly good and it has a nice location with reasonable service. The disappointment was with the lack of flavor in the food which made it fairly bland and different curries were too similar in flavour. read more. At Kaali from Noosaville it's possible to taste delicious vegetarian meals, that were made without any animal meat or fish, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Customers also know to appreciate the utilization of original Indian spices .
