We loved our visit to Stable Talk. Luckily we were there for the Greek banquet and we certainly enjoyed the seven dishes served for the incredible price of $40 per person! The highlight of the evening was to meet the Chef and personally compliment him on the wonderful fare he presented to us. We will certainly be back! read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What mrdom doesn't like about Stable Talk:

I don't know what this place is trying to be. It has a nice wooden interior (with a large area at the back but very limited footpath tables) and talks about tapas but you can't have that for dinner because it keeps standard cafe hours of about 7am-3pm. The breakfast menu is pretty basic and I got eggs with corn fritters that were ok but really lacked any flavour except for the relish that tasted exactly like ketchup.... read more. The eatery spoils you with a little bit of this and a little bit of that with their popular Tapas, the place serves also menus from the European environment. In case you want to have breakfast, a tasty brunch is offered to you, additionally, the Greek specialties are extremely popular with the customers of the restaurant.
