Great place, great coffee. Kids can colour in and keep busy. Snacks and lunch are great (sausage rolls are huge!) nice to go on a cold day. But it does get busy when truck loads of tourists are in town (autumn, and any nice day). read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Trading Post:

The location is great , the venue is beautiful. But unfortunately the staff is not friendly. I went in there on my way to the lift, using the toilet and thinking have a look of menu and dining there after back from the mountain to town. One 50 yo lady almost yelled at me seeing I came out from toilet because I am not their client (yet). I gave up the idea of eating there at once. read more. A visit to Trading Post becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, On the daily specials there are also several Asian menus.
