I don't try new cafes very often. We are creatures of habit especially when it comes to coffee but a friend was having coffee at the Black Lizard soon after it opened and called me in. I was pleasantly surprised. It was breakfast time so I tried the Spanish eggs. It's something I like and have tried in other cafes. This version was excellent and my friend trying the Smashed Avo, fashion dish of the moment of course,... read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside. With the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Black Lizard becomes even more attractive, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast. Important are also the courses from the Australian continent of this place, and you can look forward to typical tasty French cuisine.
