My kids love The Gap Tavern. So when asked "dinner out, where shall we go?" I sometimes get Gap Tavern.

Booked a table last minute and off we went. I've heard from friends that this place is hit and miss. I tend to agree! However, this particular night, the young lady taking the order was awesome, the food was served promptly and the dishes cleared once finished by another friendly waitress. The kids had a ball, free fa... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations,

Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about The Gap Tavern:

State of Origin night so decided to get away from the crowds for a bite and a wine before the game. Extensive menu and a lively little wine list with the most delightful looking desert selection (didn't sample this one tho) Food was enjoyable and I think nice for families or after work groups. Staff were not happy to be working footy night I think. read more. If eating and drinking is too plain for you, go to this sports bar for a variety of small snacks and meals and catch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine. One should particularly acknowledge the courses from Australia of this establishment, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
