What User likes about Sagra Restaurant: This is a small and unpretentious restaurant where the food is the star of the show. It was recommended to us by foodie friends in Melbourne and Sydney and I'm so glad we went there. The menu is small but wonderful. The service was unobtrusive and helpful, the wine list small but great. My background is Italian and this was about as close as I've got to northern Italian home cooking. Loved it! read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Sagra Restaurant: Unfortunately one of our pasta dishes (ragu) was too salty to finish. Generally we also thought the portion sizes were overpriced for their small size. We have had better pasta dishes at Mad Pizza! One of the waiters was very friendly but the other seemed...that everything was an inconvenience to him. We won't be going back. read more. If you feel like delicious sweets, you should visit Sagra Restaurant because they have enchanting desserts that will surely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, and you will find genuine Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. You can also look forward to tasty vegetarian cuisine, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the crispy and crunchy pizza, baked straight out of the oven in an original manner.
