Wow, loved the plain bagel with plain cream cheese. I always say if they can't get plain right then the fancier stuff won't be any better. We caught these guys at the Markets so the range was not huge and has left me just waiting impatiently till their cafe opens again during the week. Goopy fingers from the generous amount of cream cheese were licked clean, managed to get it all over my glove but that's the fun of foo... read more. What User doesn't like about Bury Me Standing:

This was a first visit. The coffee was very good, although a medium here would be considered a small size in many other cafes. The bagels were good, but would have been improved by being warm. They were cold. My husband's bagel came quickly. I waited another 10 minutes for mine; and in the meantime people were walking up to the window and getting served. Annoying. The only place to sit is in the car park on crates with... read more.
