This restaurant blew us away with its food and staff. What a gem, Hobart you are so very lucky! It would have had to have been the nicest meal we have ever had and we are well travelled and foodies. Try the sake, the one with the apple and pear flavours is delicious. Thank you for a wonderful taste bud experience read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Three Japanese:

The service was ok, the location is in the middle of battery point, but I prefer other Japanese options in Hobart. The atmosphere is a bit more cafe feel than traditional Japanese restaurant. There wasn't a great deal of choice for vegetarians, no avocado, cucumber...or seaweed rolls that you would normally find. read more. For those who want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, Three Japanese from Hobart is a good bar, delectable vegetarian menus are also on the menu available. The tasty Sushi such as Maki and Te-Maki however, is the undisputed highlight of this place, Likewise, the visitors of the establishment prefer the comprehensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
