Ended up here after a certain well-known KI restaurant let us down; in the end it was good luck for us. The owners of the Parndana bakery were friendly, helpful and welcoming, and although the food isn't haute cuisine it was tasty, freshly prepared and in generous portions. Great pit-stop, and a good place to get local advice and pick up groceries etc too. read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Parndana Bakery and Cafe:

This place is a handy stop for supplies but unfortunately the coffee was not at all good. Tasted like the milk was either long life or had been overheated. I was expecting a selection of buns etc but no fresh baked. read more.

The extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Parndana Bakery and Cafe even more worthwhile, Additionally, they provide you authentic Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Sometimes you may not want to consume a lot, in this case one of the tasty sandwiches, a small salad or another snack is just right, fine vegetarian meals are also on the menu available.
