What User likes about Kinetto:

Great food and I've been back several times. My own complaint is the man who's often behind the counter at the coffee machine - often unfriendly and tends to glare a lot, always seems to be in a bad mood - the other staff there are pleasant and friendly and have no complaints with anyone else. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Kinetto:

Eat here only if you really have to. The food is just so-so and the service is even more disappointing. The staff, particularly the dark-haired man who seems to be the manager, act as if helping customers is beneath them. read more. At Kinetto in Adelaide, you get a abundant brunch in the morning and you can eat as much as you want feast, The customers of the restaurant also appreciate the large variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. Even if you're not so famished, you can treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, and you will find classic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
