We had a great meal here, can recommend the Chicken Oliver. Staff were helpful and very pleasant. Place was very quiet as it was near to closing for the season but this did not affect the quality of the food, the tandoor was lit and working and were able to enjoy a very good meal at the chefs recommendation. Good value for the money we paid. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about Elliotts Restaurant & Bar:

When we visited in January, all continental food had been removed from the menu which was a problem as one of our party had an intolerance to spicy food. Even asking for an omelette appeared to be too much trouble. I chose a chicken biryani as it had been recommended by another traveller, but it was very disappointing, very little meat and a lot of bones. On the night we visited they only had one bottle of red wine w... read more.
