I visited here with my Thai partner and we were greeted by the lovely owner Nisa. We ordered the glass noodle salad and laab moo. We asked for it to be spicy and authentic. Both dishes were superb and as equal to anything we have had in Thailand. This is the first Thai restaurant we have visited in Australia that actually does make authentic food. Nisa explained she used to cater for functions in Thailand. When orderin... read more. What User doesn't like about Nisa Thai:

Arrived late for our 3day stay in Noosa, so didn't want to dine out. Wanted something quick and tasty and then head to our accommodation. We were not impressed. Pad Thai is usually the barometer if a Thai meal is going to be tasty. This dish was bland, as were the other dishes, the ginger stir fry tasted the same as the chilli/basil dish.

Veggies looked and tasted like they were tipped out of a bag from the freezer.... read more.
