What User likes about Brindabella Hills: What's not to like! The wines tasted were wonderful and the information provided was clear and interesting and presented in a warm and friendly manner. We also enjoyed lunch here (presented by Two Girls Catering) and it was delicious. The building was warm and inviting and the views of the surrounding countryside are very appealing. We'd certainly recommend a visit to this winery and restaurant. read more. When the weather is good you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Brindabella Hills: Somewhat disappointed with the food. Mushroom and lamb entrees were delicious but mains not so great. Beef cheeks were dry and had no flavour. The duck confit was bland. The apple tarte tatin wasn't a true reflection of the dessert and would've been better served with icecream. This would've obviated the dryness. Friend enjoyed the lemon barramundi and generous cheese board for dessert. read more. Enjoy a little bit of this and a little bit of everything at the restaurant, known for its popular Tapas, Furthermore, you save time with the diversity of already prepared delicacies, without having to compromise on pleasure. Also, the courses from Australia of this place are notable, In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here.
