What User likes about Espresso Alley: This café is a great find. It doesn't look much from the front, but inside is a funky café with a great ambience. We had a breakfast meeting at 7.30am, during the week. The service is quick and friendly. Loved the coffee- excellent blend. I had the mushrooms with a perfectly poached egg- which was amazing. Loved the pumpkin bread. My co-workers had smashed avocado- which was also lovely. Can't wait to go back on the weekend-... read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Espresso Alley:

The coffee was great! Food was served quickly and was tasty. Our initial waiter was patient, helpful with recommendations. However the waitress at the end was unfriendly, borderline rude as she mentioned (without any prior warning) and almost at the closing time that the cafe was shutting. So a bit of a downer to what had otherwise been a pleasant local outing. read more.
