We heard Melbourne knows how to make a great cup of coffee. This shop was the first place we tried after first arriving in the city. Perfect cappuccino with lots of creamy milk foam and not too bitter on the coffee end. Also had a pesto egg scramble on a thick slice of multigrain toast. Very generous portion. You can tell they attend to the healthy quality of all of their ingredients. We returned each day of our thre... read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Windsor Delicatessens:

during a visit to a clinic near, it was suggested that we try this deli for coffee and snack one. we were very disappointed as the milk in the coffee had a pronounced taste had not nice, we also ordered a sandwich and a lemon slice. to share. we didn't cost both. the disc had a bad refrigerator taste. another point where we were not happy was the fact that we had to scan a code on the table, with our handy and by a p...
