What User likes about Organik Lane:

The food was amazing. the mushrooms were great. All of the food is a work of art and tastes great. The wines I had were very good but I think it needs a few more wines on the wine list. The price is mid to upper range. We have been twice now, all smiles great night out. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Organik Lane:

I have been to organik lane a few times for coffee. It is a good place to chat, and the coffee and tea is good. Food is ok $65 for 4 coffee and three brunch items. A lot of super foods and unidentifiable items on the menu, some meat some vegan so a broad selection. One complaint is that they leave the front door open. It is cold at 8 am in Melbourne and on a June day 8degrees is uncomfortable. They did close the door... read more. The large diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Organik Lane. Additionally, they serve you authentic Australian dishes with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Furthermore, there are easily digestible Mediterranean dishes available, With the bite-sized, Tapas, you can't absolutely nothing wrong, especially because there is something for all tastes.
