What User likes about Black Salt Cafe: I went there with my work colleagues. The food was great and so was the service. Very friendly. We were quite a big group, but the kitchen seemed to handle it well. My favourite was the calamari as entree and the lamb as a main was delicious. Will definitely go again. I have also been there for breakfast. I can highly recommend it. read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Black Salt Cafe:

This seems to be a local gathering place. In the main, the clientele appeared to be local and well known to the staff. I ate breakfast here one Saturday morning and thoroughly enjoyed the food. The service however was lacking somewhat - when I arrived the waitress turned her back on me and walked away leaving me to seat myself (just after seating someone else), they left something off my meal (poached eggs) that they... At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. You can just get one of the scrumptious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, if you're not that hungry. Additionally, they provide you authentic Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
