Provides a healthy alternative take away option to the usual pizza, burgers, fish and chips. At least, good lean meats and salads do, obviously the pride themselves are probably no more or less healthy than those other alternatives. The Banquet for two serves up a mountain of food (or at least a very large box full) lean, juicy lamb and chicken kebabs with rice and salad, flafel and zucchini balls. Plus enough turkis... A great example of a Canberra business - plies its trade indifferent to its clientele, with little love or authenticity in their offerings, knowing that the lack of alternatives means that locals will keep coming back. Generous serves somewhat compensate for their total disinterest in you or their food, particularly when it comes to the kebabs, but the well-priced pides are often lacking in actual fillings despite th...
