Return visit after the recent menu change and was not disappointed. Pleased to see the Sri Lankan hoppars retain their position, however this time the Japanese (rhubarb) pancakes and El Pedro eggs were magnificent. One of the most diverse breakfast and lunch menus we have seen and enjoyed. Thanks for the vote if you found this review helpful. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Travelling Bandit:

The business and owners must have changed since we last enjoyed a lunch in these premises. Having good memories of the previous owners' culinary offerings, we eagerly returned to this cafe spot in the Greythorn Shopping Centre. We hesitated upon noticing the change of decor, business name and staff but ventured in nevertheless. The previous owners has spoiled us with on-the-spot home made Italian pastries and super fr...
