We arrived in Melbourne after 10.30 pm and after checking in to accomodation were doubtful of finding somewhere to eat. However this little gem was conveniently located, open til at least 2.30am, popular with the locals, had great service and delicious food. A blend of Korean and Chinese cuisine with lots of character. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Korchi City:

My 3rd visit here because had bibimbap on 2 earlier ocassions and it was really nice, this time round the bibimbap was something else, hardly any beef in it and just tasteless strips of meat dropped in, even lacked good veggies, overall a huge dissapointment, what was worse was we ordered a deep fried pork in garlic sauce, the pork was straight out of the freezer and deep fried so was very hard and not even sure if i...
