My wife and I decided to try the Marquis Buffet & Bistro for lunch after having seen their ad in our daily newspaper. We arrived at about noon only to find it was booked out so we booked in for lunch 2 weeks ahead. On arrival we received a friendly greeting and shown to our table with a great view over Hobart. The service was very good and the choices of the mains and desserts at the Buffet were quite wide. We did not... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Marquis Buffet and Bistro:

The first time we went it was really good, so we were disappointed when we returned with friends. The dishes were different and there were not as many choices. There was no hot vegetarian option and not even any bread rolls. The service was still good, but it seems that the quality and range of dishes available may depend on the chef on the day.
