This popular restaurant is a couple of blocks off Cairns Esplanade. It is on the corner of a junction and we opted to eat outside, which doesn't offer the best of views. The menu offered a great selection of Balinese food, all of which was very tempting. We opted to share a starter minced seafood sate on lemon grass skewers, which was brought to us on a mini barbecue of hot charcoal. This was most unexpected but just... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Bay Village Balinese:

My friends and I were there Monday night sat down service was not great went to order our food my friend ordered the banquet for $89 dollars which was fine the waitress looked dumb foundered I then ordered the same made it quite clear 2...of them and other food and drinks said again 2 banquets yes I understand she said first part comes out only two off beef chicken fish scewers I ask is this right and with attitude y...
