The sound of live music initially attracted us whilst walking to the Esplanade on Friday late afternoon. Its a grill and bar with a very relaxed and casual atmosphere, outside covered dining area and excellent value meals with very generous serving sizes and friendly and helpful staff. My husband and I shared a delicious grilled barramundi meal with a large jacket potato and veggies for $23. Highly recommended. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. WiFi is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about The Cotton Club:

i wanted to celebrate my birthday there with just having dinner with my boyfriend. first of all the staff was really unfriendly !! first they wanted us to sit inside although there was enough space outside. when we paid there was the next stress as they didnt want to accept the voucher we had! when i asked for a simple glass of water i didnt get that either. food was cold and nothing special at all. staff was simple u... In this gastropub, you not only get delicious dishes from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good selection of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, The barbecued food is freshly cooked here on an open flame. You can still relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian menus with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
