Had a great sandwich here - corned wagyu brisket on a brioche bun, with a side of sweet potatoes and jalapeños. Have had excellent breakfasts in the past. The service is friendly and helpful, and they're good with young children. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also have something outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What learningholiday doesn't like about Proper & Son:

I thought I'd try this place instead of my usual. Like every other blond wood slick cafe around these parts, staff have to remember old fashioned smiles and warmth of character. 'Sign in' as you get a QR laminate plonked in front of you is not what people like or need right now. A hello first, ask about the coffee order and then ask kindly to please sign in is what staff need training for. Like many olaces staff act... read more.
