What User likes about Hell's Kitchen: A great place if you can find it late at night when you want a nightcap or two to finish off the evening - take the stairs up to Hell's Kitchen and enjoy the unique vibe that makes you feel like you have found a hidden little treasure of a place that is unpretentiously good. Can get a little cramped if big numbers happen to stumble in, but usually it is elusive enough to keep the large crowds away. read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Hell's Kitchen:

Hidden upstairs off Central Place, colleagues and I visited one evening for some drinks and some food. The dinner menu is fairly limited and limited further when they run out of pineapple for their Hawaiian pizza but the meatballs and Turkish bread were decent if not unspectacular. The atmosphere is dark and moody but the beer is good. Service is friendly. A decent CBD bar. Perhaps better for a cheeky beer at lunch than... read more. Just eating and drinking is too boring for you? Then a visit to this sports bar is just right: in addition to small snacks and dishes you can watch the latest football matches, tennis or Formula 1. Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive diversity of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. A wide variety of fresh and delicious juices is offered by the restaurants. Also, you shouldn't miss out on the delicious pizza, traditional freshly baked in a wood oven.
