For something different, we decided to go to a local Indian restaurant that had been recommended to us. I must have walked past this place a dozen times, but never noticed it. The food was excellent and a good serving size. The staff were very helpful and attentive. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Aagaman Indian Nepalese Restaurant:

We went as a couple for a celebration. We ordered the chicken starter- this was NOT chicken breast even though we asked if it was and it stated it was on the menu. NO mains chicken breast dishes. We had to ask for more water and more drinks even though they were not busy... We asked to take the extra food home and can you believe they charged us $2.50 to a container!!! Outrageous.
