In South Melbourne, but away from the usual shop strips, the Montague Park Foodstore has some great staple foods & some with a twist. You can buy some special grocery items to enjoy at your own home, but the intimate setting is a great spot for catching up with friends. There is also an additional dining area out the back, only accessible from the street. A nice hidden gem. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Montague Park Foodstore:

Not too many dishes on menu, but a good choice plus daily specials. Reasonably priced. I had scrambled eggs with salmon which was delicious. Coffee good, but not extraordinary. Very friendly staff.
