This cafe is very near to the main square towards the road leading to Dharamkot. After we noticed that it is almost always occupied by visitors, we also decided to give it a go and we were not disappointed. We had some Indian starter and Chinese main course and both were decent. The place has nice seating arrangement and the host is very cordial. It was pleasant experience overall, a good place to have a relaxed after... read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WLAN. What User doesn't like about Common Ground Cafe:

A good place to go for some Taiwanese food. Food is nice, price is fairly cheap and ambience is quite nice. However, for the 4 weeks while we were in Dharmasala the restroom at the cafe was out of order, so quite inconvenient for a longer stay. And best to stick with the menu as the kitchen is not apt to make substitutions. read more. The extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Common Ground Cafe even more worthwhile, fine vegetarian meals are also in the menu available. The preparation of the dishes is done typically Asian, Furthermore, the guests love the successful combination of different meals with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
