We were staying at Bogdo House and had a chance to have a couple of meals here. The Tibetan food preparation for dinner for good not spicy and large helpings. The service was quick and attentive both times. The option to sit out and enjoy the views whilst enjoying your coffee is unbeatable. Overall I would give a high recommendation for the couple running the place and staff there. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What Trippadvice doesn't like about Bogdo Cafe:

The staff is unfocused, does not come to take the order and even ignores the customers. They have different coffee's on the menu but sometimes they don't know how to make a cappuccino, so they say they don't have it. I ordered a salad once and there was hair in it. There are flies everywhere. Much overpriced. The wifi often doesn't work. read more.
