The Card of The Stone Hotel from Melbourne contains about 119 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about A$15. What User likes about The Stone Hotel:

Went here for a private function. The waiting staff were friendly and hardworking. Venue upstairs was lovely. The music was a bit too loud for the event but that might have been a private DJ, not sure. It was pretty empty downstairs early on, 1/3 full later in the evening. Nice if you'd like to dance with friends without being bumped or pushed every few minutes. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about The Stone Hotel:

Having visited the Stone Hotel mid-week for a 'counter meal' on two separate occasions, the venue is a relaxed environment with a modern fit-out, complete with televised sport, decent beer and wine list, compact beer garden and a standard pub menu of burgers, chicken parma etc. Service is friendly. read more. At The Stone Hotel in Melbourne, tasty Australian dishes are freshly cooked for you with a lot of affection and the classic ingredients such as bush tomatoes and caviar limes, this sports bar is a favourite among the visitors, who enjoy not only the fantastic food and drinks, but also the opportunity to watch the latest games or races on the big screen. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
