We walked by the Water Rat Hotel and decided to try it. The barman was extremely polite and professional and served us straight away. We had a feast of chicken wings (really nice and spicy), calamari, saganaki and duck read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about The Water Rat Hotel:

Stopped in for a glass of wine and asked to have a small taste to try before ordering. The wine had clearly been open for a while. When I asked the bar staff for a 'fresh' wine, this was the begrudging response, "I'll give you a fresh one THIS time." The same bar staff member disappeared for a while. Another couple came in, waited, and then left. Problem? Staff who think the customers revolve around them ... read more. If eating and drinking is too plain for you, go to this sports bar for a variety of small snacks and dishes and catch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Even if you're only not so much hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the tasty sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, One can also find some international dishes to choose from in the menu.
