What User likes about Thorpdale Bakery: OK, this isn't some sort of Rolls Royce dining experience, it's a small town country bakery. But for all that it's a good stopping point as both locals and people passing through are customers so they must be doing something right! Open on weekends this little bakery has the usual selection of various types of pie and sausage roll and some small baked items such as caramel slice for those after a sugar hit. You can ea... We ordered a lamb and rosemary pie, and an Asian Duck one and a sausage roll. We cut all in half to share. Duck had lots of good sized chunks of meat but was WAY to sweet, if I didn't know I'd ordered lamb and rosemary, I wouldn't have known what I was eating. A little shredded meat in a lot of gravy. Pies pastry was very good but I was happy I didn't ha... read more.
