By far one of the finest restaurants in Goa I would say. Their mocktails and cocktails are great and so is their food. Every dish we've tried so far has exceeded our expectations. Be it for dinner or lunch, during monsoons or summer, always a pleasant experience as it's located in the midst of lush greenery. The staff is courteous as well. For the quality of food that is served the pricing is justified. Always a pleas... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Ignia:

these types tilt their müll in the waterfall near their hotel. this place stinks and these types have disregarded their responsibility from the waste disposal. it's a total scandal. also this place is extremely expensive and simply not worth the money they spend. there are read more.
