We had a dinner here on a cold wet evening. We arrived before they were fully set up for dinner however they were willing to allow us to sit by the open fire and order a drink. When we ordered our meal, my choice was a steak. It was the best steak I can remember ever having eaten. I did not expect to be able to get through it initially - the serving size was very big. However it was so full of flavour and so perfect... read more.
