This is a wonderful gem hidden off the road and once inside a different world opens up to the visitor. Child friendly, there is a large sandpit and various toys and ride-ons to occupy them outside. Outside eating area is lovely on a nice day and inside is equally comfortable. Food we had (4 adults) was delicious and well presented. The family who run the premises are welcoming and friendly. Highly recommended - and w... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Da Vince's:

I went here for a special occasion lunch being close by to where we were travelling. Oh my what a disappointment..The food list is in need of some urgent up grade and some more interesting choices.Maybe they like pan cakes and feeding small children I felt I was at a kids retreat.On the plus side I rather enjoyed the heavy tables that did not move this helped absorb the noise which made for easy pleasant talking.The d...
