My wife and I are always trying to figure out where to have brunch and a good coffee. Can't be bothered going into Newtown, but we found this little ripper out in southwest tucked away. Service was quick and prompt. Was packed but we were seated quickly, drinks came out pretty much straight away. Waited about 15 minutes for our food. I got the brekky burger, she got the mushroom and kale eggs benney. We are going back a... read more.

The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Four Little Foxes:

We had continually heard fantastic reviews about this cafe & we love to support local businesses but quite honestly I do not know what we missed. We went for brunch on a Sunday it was packed, lots of uni types were there which is understandable being 5 mins from the university, we had a bacon and egg roll (a bit on the small side) and yogurt & muesli, a couple of coffees, the meals were not earth shattering just aver... definitely always an experience to be in a typical saloon and to enjoy; to feel like a cowboy for once with a chilled drink and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a delicious burger, look forward to the typical tasty French cuisine. You can also look forward to delicious vegetarian cuisine. Furthermore, the guests of the establishment enjoy the large selection of the various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available.
