Fantastic locally sourced seafood served in a local style. Great portion sizes and something different. The restaurant seating is very restricted so make sure to book early. Lovely location for a late meal with the sea breeze and listening to the waves read more. In pleasant weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about By the Bay:

Unsuitable for physically challenged, with stair access to an upper dining space. Bathrooms are downstairs. We were disappointed with the plain decor - much more could be done with this space to create a better ambience. The seafood was fresh, excellently prepared and presented. Set price dishes were fair value but prawns and lobster sold by weight were expensive on international price scales. Given India's wage struc... read more. You can at By the Bay from Kāsaragod taste delicious vegetarian menus, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, and you may look forward to the delicious traditional seafood cuisine.
