We were just after a snack lunch and coffee. Plenty of food items on display and on the menu. We ordered 2 coffees and a large spinach filled sausage roll. Seating inside and outside. Our sausage roll was delivered by a young lad who even gave us the standard "enjoy" comment as he completed delivery. The sausage roll came with sprouts and home made tomato relish. The coffee took a while but the cafe was busy and when... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about The Rivermouth General Store:

Would probably be nice in summer but certainly not the spot on a winter's afternoon. We sat inside but ended up getting coats from the car to try to keep warm (without much success). The café is a fairly small space with a nice jumble of tables that were really in need of wiping down, not just the last guests' crumbs and spills but also the whole surface with vinegar or something similar. Probably not surprising that t... read more.
