Relaxed atmosphere, attentive service, scrumptious food which included such choices as Arancini Balls, Deep Fried Camembert and Duck Spring Rolls as well as well selected wines to compliment the dishes. We will definitely return to Terah's. read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about Terah's Restaurant:

On our Family Sunday adventure we stopped in here for a quick lunch. The young waitresses were lacking enthusiasm and menu knowledge. The food was delicious, especially the calamari, however not polished. Hubby and I both had a steak which weren't cooked to spec and the Sauces weren't reduced and both had a hint or aftertaste of red wine. Lovely setting and environment, could be absolutely amazing.
