A surprisingly good 'hidden gem' in a beautiful setting, no matter what the season. (Indoor and outdoor dining). Well worth the diversion off the highway. Loved the salt and pepper squid and prawns with salad. Watch the boats go by on the mighty Clarence river. Great place to stretch your legs after a long drive and reboot. The historic village of Ulmarra has a smattering of quaint small businesses like an op shop, c... read more. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Cafe Clarence:

Two Chicken Caesar salads. Little rock hard pieces of chicken, no Parmesan cheese, (how do you forget that on a caesar Hard poached egg and no taste in the bottled mayonnaise. The setting is lovely, but for a country pub charging city prices, have to...be careful about the food quality. read more.
