My friend Shauna has been raving about this place for ages and posting amazing pics. Finally made it in today.

What a selection of great looking food that actually tastes so good! The gluten free pastry on the pies and sausage rolls was excellent as was the mediterranean tart read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Kitchen Green:

The food is great for gluten-free standards. Very expensive but yummy. However the staff are so incredibly rude. The last 3 times I visited, the staff were openly and loudly arguing with a customer, zero respect, refusing to let the customer try explain what they...wanted. The manager was there too, part of it, so can't even blame 'the junior staff'. It was so embarrassing to watch and I felt terrible for the poor cu... read more. If you crave for sweets, Kitchen Green with its magical desserts can easily make an end of it, and you will find classic Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. Of course, we must not forget the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, well digestible Mediterranean dishes are also available.
