Delicious prawns, oysters and bugs. Good selection of sashimi and sushi, cold meats and salads. Hot food varies night to night but also a good selection and tasty. And then you have deserts! No wonder the weight went on. At your table - good service, fantastic view of the bay and good choice of wines/beer. read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Kims Beach Hideaway Restaurant:

The limited main course lunch options were not of a very high standard for the price. Corned beef, deep fried fish and plain roast chicken were the options on the day we visited. Entrees were also very simple and not outstanding. The highlight is the dessert table where everything was excellent. The venue itself is wonderful and worth a visit simply to enjoy the ambience and views. Maybe dinner is better? read more.
