What User likes about Grains Galore: I had very low expectations as far as what to expect from a hole in the wall type place in a train station. The lamb kebab turned out to be one of the best I have ever eaten. Massive (almost enough for 2 people) and jam packed with meat. Juicy and delicious for under 10 bucks. Thoroughly recommended. I have been here several times for kebabs which are excellent at this venue. This time I wanted something light so I ordered a lamb gozleme. This was very ordinary and tasted like just lamb mince on some thin pastry without any flavour. Gozleme not...recommended and the gozleme I purchase at Aldi for less than half the price is so much better. read more. A visit to Grains Galore is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, there are also delicious vegetarian recipes in the menu. As a rule, most courses are prepared in the shortest time for you and served, The guests also rave about the tasty, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the exciting combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the specialties from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East.
