Stopped for breakfast, coffee was excellent and certainly one of Melbournes better brews. Fruit bread toast was delicious and the feel of this cafe was very friendly read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Mugs Alley:

Now that I work above this place, I usually grab a coffee before I start my day. I also usually get lunch there too. The coffee is okay. I get a strong one but I think it would be better as normal strength as it gets very bitter.

Food is not bad but you need to get there early as everything sells out pretty quick. They have a variety of salads, pastries, sandwiches etc, and the muffins are nice. The main downside is ho...
