What User likes about Vincent the Dog: I love my mugs of coffee and unfortunately I could not get one here. The almond croissant was divine and that made me happy. The courtyard out the back is good and dog friendly but not big enough for even my small dog to roam. The staff are friendly and we were greeted as we walked in the front door. I may return. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Vincent the Dog: All the hype and I was expecting something more. The service was almost non-existent. We had to hail a server after receiving our initial coffees and sitting for quite awhile. No one let us know there was seating out the back we ended up having to find an extra chair and on the corner of a communal table in the front and it wasn't that busy, we specifically went in before the rush. The coffee was good but not great,... read more.
