Have had takeaway a few times from here and eaten in a couple of times. Always happy with the food and serving sizes are generous. On my last visit with my 4yo, the waitstaff were very friendly, going out of their way to engage with my daughter which was lovely and made the experience all the more enjoyable. The food is of a high standard, I prefer to pay a little extra for the quality here than a greasy takeaway joi... read more. What User doesn't like about Tommy Ruff Fish Bar:

Waited almost minutes for our meal, chased up only to find out that it hadn't even started to be cooked. We were told human error was to blame, yet we placed our order electronically, so that was confusing. Food eventually came out and was...nice. Overall disappointing experience. If we hadn't of chased, who know how long we would have waited read more.
