This is a cute little vego cafe that has been around for ages. They have a range of delicious items on their menu but the mushroom and broccoli pastry is AMAZING. You really have to try one. Their mushroom baguette is also pretty nice too. read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Sarah's Sister's Sustainable Cafe:

Me and my friend went here for lunch and were hoping for a nice catch up lunch. Unfortunately we were met by an elderly man that was very sulky and not accommodating at all. He didn't improve through our stay so we felt uncomfortable sitting there. The coffee was very average, too hot, frothy and no latte art. I had the soup and it was watery and flavourless. My friend had the crepes and they were ok but on the burnt... read more.
