My husband and I visited The Bored Monkey for the first time on Saturday night. The menu offered a large choice of dishes, all very reasonably priced, we felt spoilt for choice! We opted for a selection of meat, vegetarian and seafood tapas to share - all absolutely delicious! The restaurant was very busy on arrival but despite this the staff were calm and friendly. We were served by the most charming waitress, a ple... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WiFi is available at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about The Bored Monkey:

We celebrated my husband's 55th birthday with a dinner for our immediate family of four. Our kids are in their 20s but there were plenty of tables with younger children and the menu also caters for them. The food is expensive for what is essentially pub grub but what we had was tasty with generous serves. Staff were friendly. Drinks came out one at a time with quite a pause between them but that didn't really matter.... read more. The large diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to The Bored Monkey, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you may look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine.
