I love this Cafe and go there quite a bit. The staff are lovely the coffee is great and don't even get me started on the muffins. You can sit inside and look at all the fabulous furniture or they have a great outdoor area with heating if it's a bit cold. I love homemade food and the chef there makes great scones and muffins. It is in a Homemaker centre so the outlook is not great but don't let that put you off, the a... read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Rice Cafe:

Husband and I had just finished looking for carpet at a nearby outlet , we thought we might have lunch at Rice Cafe Homebase . It's been over twelve months since our last visit . We both ordered quiche with salad and coffees . The coffees were fantastic , but the presentation of the quiches, with sauce, and the tossed salad was dreadful , We were disappointed , but we would try lunch another time !! read more. A visit to Rice Cafe is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, For a snack, the tasty sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are suitable. If you want to have breakfast, a versatile brunch awaits you, Additionally, they serve you authentic Australian menus with ingredients like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
