This restaurant is well hidden in Bensville, off the main road, well worth a visit. Food is good, a nice family atmosphere, on a nice morning work a trip to try it out. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Bottletree Kitchen:

I heard this place was the best in Central Coast for coffee and when I sat my daughter in their antique child seat which could not easily be opened, we had no choice but to hold our daughter in our lap while having our bland...lunch and dirty water coffee. The waitress was discourteous, we did not get napkins and had to ask for their excuse for napkins (paper towels). Don't waste time coming here if you value your ta... read more. For breakfast, you can enjoy a diverse brunch at Bottletree Kitchen, freely at your own will, there are also tasty vegetarian menus in the menu. As a sweet conclusion to your meal, the local place offers a delectable selection of crepes to round off your visit, Furthermore, the visitors of the restaurant enjoy the large variety of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available.
